Meeting Agenda

7-710p. Introductions and Community Information Sharing

710-725p. Karin LaBelle, Crown Hill Village

Karin is representing the re-energized Crown Hill Business Association, which is expanding to include storefront, home, small producer, and virtual businesses, as well as residents. She will talk about the new mission for the group.

725-750p. Ann Selznick, Committee for Smart Growth--Crown Hill Urban Village (CHUV)

Ann will be giving a history of the CHUV Committee for Smart Growth and how it has engaged community and provided resources for participating in the MHA legislation rezoning process. She'll give context of what the most recent amended zoning maps include, and the goals of the neighborhood Committee in working with the City to mitigate the impacts of planned urban growth.

750-820p. Katy Haima, Seattle Office of Planning & Comm Dvpt--Crown Hill Community Plan

Katy will discuss the goals and process for the creation of a new community area plan underway in Crown Hill, with focus on the outcome of the first two of four planned workshops in Crown Hill with neighbors to gather input and set plan priorities.

820-830p Other business/Closing discussion
